

Planning Board Has Look at the Future

Two-thirds 1943 Taxes Are Paid

Cash Discount Offer on Taxes Brings Results; Now After Delinquents

Practically two-thirds of the 1943 State and County taxes were collected during the month of October. Tax Collector M. E. Cantrell states that the collections of the year's rolls amounted to $90,031.86.

The total taxes assessed in Randall county for the year amounted to $134,473.58.

The collections as listed above do not include poll taxes collected or delinquent taxes which have been paid. Many delinquent taxes have been paid this year since it was announced that the Commissioners Court had instructed County Attorney C. R. Flesher to start proceedings to collect delinquent taxes.

Governor Coke Stevenson announced in Austin this week that a general drive over the state would be made to collect delinquent taxes.

The collections of current taxes for October was the best the county has ever had. Mr. Cantrell states that the 3% discount given on taxes paid during October was the inducement which brought in this large percentage of the 1943 taxes.

Bond Sales For November Lags; Month Half Gone

The sale of War Bonds is lagging in Randall county.

The quota for November amounts to $26,600. The sales for the first 16 days totaled only $9,806.25.

The lag for the month is no doubt the result of reaction following the big September campaign, as well as tax paying time.

County Chairman R. H. Wright hopes that all regular monthly buyers of War Bonds will take their November quota in order that the county shall not fail in the monthly drive.

Committees Are Named to Make a Study of the Future Needs of Canyon

The first meeting of the Canyon Planning Board was held Monday night at the City Hall looking toward post-war problems.

Mayor W. A. Warren presented an outline of his ideas as to what might be accomplished following the war in the development of Canyon.

C. L. Thompson, chairman of the City Planning Board, stated that the reason for organization now was that when the war stopped, citizens would have a plan to take care of the returning war workers and the returning soldiers.

The idea prevailing was that Randall county boys should not come back to a ghost town, but that business enterprises should be kept alive during the war. Various kinds of enterprises should be encouraged to swing into peace-time operations when the war ceases.

Surveys will be made for the purpose of ascertaining the materials which will be needed to rebuild and repair the ravages of the war; the manpower which may be absorbed in the county; enterprises which may be developed and expanded after the war; new enterprises which may be opened here.

A six point program was outlined and committees appointed to make a survey of the need of this program as follows:

Education development: Dr. S. H. Condon, Supt. J. B. Speer.
Business improvements: W. J. Wooten, C. R. Burrow, Hosea Foster.
Agriculture: Milton Morris, W. H. Upchurch, C. L. Thompson.

Civic improvements: T. A. Black, Clay Cooper, Gordon Lyons.
Recreational facilities: Clyde Warwick, G. B. Heath, W. W. Nicklaus.

Manpower survey: W. C. Black, Guy Harp, Geo. A. Farlow.

The members will meet again January 15, allowing 60 days in which the committees may consider the above problems.

The need of a hotel was considered one of the major new enterprises of the community.

There will be a demand for many new homes, and the repair of hundreds of homes and business houses following the war. Business houses may be looking ahead with the view of taking care of these needs.

The war workers will be the first to return to their home towns. They will not be content to live in trailers and undesirable houses. But they will not wish to locate in towns which have been wrecked by the war, and in which business houses were allowed to run down for lack of interest on the part of local citizens.

The boys who have gone into the armed services may be absorbed in local institutions when the return, provided these institutions are attractive, and pleasant relationships are promised.

Wooten Resigns Chairman of the Rationing Board

W. J. Wooten has resigned as chairman of the Randall County War Price and Rationing Board.

No successor has yet been appointed.

Taylor & Sons Expanding Plant

Four Years of Service Has Been Given by the Present Plant; Contracts Necessary

Taylor & Sons plan to add another unit of 300 lockers to the plant at their store north of Canyon on the highway.

A unit of 250 lockers was put into operation four years ago. All of the lockers have been rented for more than two years and the demand for additional lockers is increasing.

Under WPB regulations it will not be possible to secure a permit for materials until 60% of the new lockers have been rented, with the money put in the bank in escrow. When the permit is granted, work may be started in a very short time.

Applications for new lockers are now being taken, and as soon as 60% of the lockers are taken, work may be started.

When completed, this locker plant will be one of the largest and most complete in the Panhandle.

Those who have used the lockers in the past are highly pleased with the system, especially since fruits and vegetables have become so scarce. Meats have always been the principal items of food which has been stored in the plant.

Where Is Democratic Party?

"Have you left the Democratic party," asked a citizen the other day. He referred to editorials of The News in which the administration was criticized.

Since our grand father was a Democrat, and our father followed in his footsteps, we disclaim that we have left the Democratic party. But we do say that the Democratic party has fallen into strange hands, and no longer is headed by men who believe in the principles of the Democratic party.

The Democratic party has become the New Deal-Roosevelt party. The rank and file of the party has nothing to say or do about it. The party leaders have left stranded those who believe in the fundamental principles of the party.

The News was a most ardent supporter of the New Deal so long as it stayed within the Democratic party. But when it took over the party and attempted to lead the members down a blind alley, only for the purpose of keeping Roosevelt in the White House as long as he lives; then and there we decided that it was time to get back to the fundamentals of the party.

The first two years of Roosevelt, with the extravagant spending, and New Deal practices were pretty hard to take at times. But the rank and file of the party blindly followed.

The war made the third term possible, although not logical. Had Willkie possessed the personal charm of Roosevelt, there would never have been a third term.

The third term had hardly started until New Dealers started to angle for a fourth term. If the President should win a fourth term, the New Dealers will find ample excuse, in their own simple minds, to demand a fifth term.

The President is credited with many needed reforms during his first two terms. His handling of the depression was good, in spite of needless waste. But when he demanded that these same practices be carried on in spite of the war, it was time that the people demand a change.

The News has felt for a long time that the war would go much better if Roosevelt and Churchill would let the military experts do the fighting without so much direction from the top. The campaign in Italy is proving this to be correct. It develops that the military experts opposed this campaign, but the bosses told them to go ahead.

Will Roosevelt be nominated by the Democratic party in 1944? Certainly. The President has seen to it that no other man in the party has had a chance to grow to the stature of a presidential candidate. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt, and every person in authority in Washington has seen to it that when a man was receiving too much attention as a political leader that his wings were clipped. Roosevelt has so entangled the party with his appointees that no other man within the party has the slightest chance so long as Roosevelt wishes to run. Only one justice on the Supreme Court is not a Roosevelt appointee. Throughout the length and breadth of the nation Roosevelt appointees hold offices. Every postmaster has been appointed for life, under executive order. Even if Roosevelt is defeated in 1944 his influence will be carried down for 25 years to come. That's the way he planned it. It simply means that history will record that no President has ever had so much influence over so long a period of time as Franklin D. Roosevelt. And that's just what he wants.

Those who believe that the war would be handicapped by a change in administration need not worry. The United Nations have military leaders who can win the war.

Would the peace parley be handicapped? We do not believe so. The people of the nation are thinking and talking about the kind of peace they want after this war. They are not leaving it up to a handful of politicians to handle after the war, as we did in 1918. If a peace parley should be called soon, Roosevelt would expect to dominate it, as he has dominated everything in this country. He might be sadly disappointed. He is peeved at Hull for agreeing that Roosevelt and Stalin should go to London instead of Stalin and Churchill come to Washington.

The News reached the conclusion months ago that it would be wise to have a change in the White House, but we wonder if such a happy event will be possible on Jan. 1, 1945.

Governor Stevenson announces that the state will put on a drive to collect delinquent taxes. Randall county has beat the Governor to it, and is now working up the list of delinquents. The Governor has been around Austin for 14 years. During that time he has seen the legislature pass bill after bill remitting interest and penalties on delinquent taxes. He no doubt realizes that the state has been imposed upon by professional tax dodgers. There are always persons who cannot pay their taxes. But it is illogical to say that such persons should be forgiven penalties when other citizens are required to pay their taxes. This is a good time to put on the pressure and see to it that all delinquent tax rolls are cleaned up.

The New Dealers are again trying to abolish poll tax payments in Texas and seven other states. Mrs. Roosevelt has dipped in her little oar into the question by advocating this as a reform. Of course none of these meddlers have figured out how Texas is going to raise the million dollars which the poll tax places in the school fund; or the three-quarters of a million going to the county funds. Since the New Dealers are willing to throw away billions, the matter of a mere million is of no consequence. Just why these so-called reformers have no regard for the rights of these states in determining how they shall handle strictly local affairs is a deep dark mystery.

The greatest curse in the nation today is over-optimism on the war. Our military leaders, and the newspaper men who are on the front have tried to tell the people of the nation that the war is not won. But too many people are still convinced that it is all over but the shouting. Production has sagged in vital war plants. Strikes are on the increase. Indifference is on the increase. This is a mighty poor spirit when our men are dying in larger numbers than ever before; when there is no sign of break in the spirit of our enemies. It is well to say that morale should be breaking in Germany, but our wistful hoping will not realize this wish.

Willkie is shown by the Gallup Poll to be trailing Dewey in popularity with the Republicans. Dewey has not antagonized the political bosses. He has disclaimed any interest in the nomination for President in 1944. He may figure that the Republicans have no chance for next year, but will be in line for 1948. At any rate, Willkie is mighty blunt in telling the Republicans what they must do if he is to accept the 1944 leadership. He is not acceptable to the big bosses of the party, but if Dewey does reject the nomination, Willkie will be the nominee.

Paper is getting scarce and should be conserved! Yet it took two solid pages of mimeograph sheets sent to every newspaper and radio station in the nation telling government employees not to travel during the critical holiday periods. The government is the greatest waster of paper in the nation. The News has been reprimanded three times recently by government agencies because we did not print the junk which was sent to us by these agencies. Such nerve!

The question of poison gas keeps bobbing up. We shall not be surprised to hear of its use on London at any time by the Germans. The Japs have used gas on the helpless Chinese. The Germans have committed every possible crime against humanity. No one need be surprised to hear that they have stooped to the lowest depths by turning loose poison gas.

The Republicans talk about nominating General MacArthur for President Next year. Some Democrats retaliate by talking about nominating General Marshall. Why can't the politicians let the military men win the war before they talk about drafting able leaders for political jobs? Seldom do military heroes make able political leaders.

We are told that Stalin has promised to repay us for everything Russia has received during the war. This is a refreshing promise. Finland is the only nation which paid on their World War I debt. When Russia jumped onto Finland, naturally we received no more payments. But Russia is now our friend, while Finland joined up with Hitler.

Of the approximately 20 hundred million people in the world, some seven hundred million are American and European; two hundred million Russian; four hundred million Indian; two hundred million African negroes, and five hundred million Mongolian. About one hundred million of the Mongolian race are Japanese.

SET UP TRUCK PRODUCTION

A four-fold increase in its 1944 civilian truck production program has been announced by the War Production Board. So important is this program that it has been given priority ratings equal to aircraft and high octane gas. Provisions are also made for production of replacement parts for civilian use. In spite of the four-fold increase, the new goal of 123,492 trucks is still far short of the pre-war production of approximately 700,000.

TO STORE MEAT FOR SPRING

A wider variety of rationed meats will be available to the housewife during the low ebb of meat production next spring under a rationing plan recently announced by OPA. Meat wholesalers will be loaned points to fill their storage freezers with veal, lamb, mutton, and the lower grades of beef between now and mid-January, the peak period of meat output.

NEW MENDING BULLETIN AVAILABLE

A new edition of the wartime bulletin, "ABC's of Mending," has recently been issued by the Department of Agriculture. The booklet gives directions with illustrations for mending household fabrics and furnishings as well as clothing. Skillful and prompt mending is encouraged, because the longer any fabric can be made to last, just so much is the burden lightened on civilian goods productions. A copy of the booklet may be had by writing to the Office of Information, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

CANNED LUNCHEON MEAT

Consumers will be able to buy more canned luncheon meat during the coming year, according to the War Food Administration. Canning of this product is encouraged because it prevents waste of good bits and trimmings of meat at packing plants.

TEMPORARY FOOD RATIONS

Service men on leave can get temporary food rations without the forms usually furnished by the armed services, according to OPA. In an emergency, application may be made on forms available at local ration boards.

REDUCE CHRISTMAS LIGHTING

The American people have been asked by the Office of War Utilities to confine Christmas lighting decorations to Christmas trees inside private homes. Saving electricity will mean direct savings of fuel, manpower, transportation, and materials.

SCRAP DRIVE TO CONTINUE

The "Victory Scrap Bank" drive, scheduled to end November 15, has been continued indefinitely. H. M. Fault, Director of the Salvage Division of WPB, said "As long as the war lasts, there will be a continuing need for iron and steel scrap to keep the mills well supplied. The collection of iron and steel scrap from all sources must be continuing operation."

START CONSUMER SURVEY

Census enumerators expect to visit 7,000 households in a nation-wide survey to determine the availability of 115 types of goods. As a result of these studies, the Office of Civilian Requirements will have information from consumers to aid it in carrying out its function of maintaining an adequate supply of necessary civilian goods within wartime limits of manpower, materials, and manufacturing facilities.

"Take her down!" With these words, Commander Gilmore signed his own death warrant. Rather than risk losing his boat and crew, from enemy fire, the wounded Commander ordered his submarine to submerge—with himself outside.

How much is "duty"?

WHEN A SOLDIER charges up a newly established beachhead heedless of the shells and machine-gun bullets ripping around him . . . that's duty.

When a sailor stands at an anti-aircraft gun fiercely firing at an enemy plane, disregarding the bombs and lead falling from the skies . . . that's duty.

A soldier or a sailor has duty clearly defined for him.

But how much is "duty" for a civilian?

There is no clear definition. But there is one job which every man and woman of us must consider duty if he would like to see the war shortened and our fighting men back with us.

That's—Buying War Bonds. Not just a few. As many as you possibly can afford!

For your own sake . . . for the sake of your fighting men . . . for the sake of your country . . . boost your buying through Payroll Savings!

WE'RE GROWING ACCUSTOMED TO MANY SHORTAGES . . . BUT NOT A SHORTAGE OF . . .

ELECTRICITY

This war has forced all of us to make many changes in our eating and living habits. Shortages in various merchandise have appeared every few days since Pearl Harbor. However, it takes only a few days for most of us to readjust ourselves and accept these necessities as a small secondary sacrifice in our effort to win the war.

We wonder if we could become accustomed to a shortage of electric power. It would not only mean going back to oil lamps, sweeping the floor with an old-fashioned broom, and the eliminating of many of the labor saving devices electricity has brought to the home, but business would be practically at a standstill, because electric power plays a much bigger part in the earning of our daily bread than most people realize.

But there is no shortage of electricity. The big generating plants of your Southwestern Public Service Company produce many times the amount of electric energy that can possibly be used by the territory we serve. And the employees of this company are on the job, ready for call 24 hours every day, to make sure that our record of bringing CANYON UNFAILING ELECTRIC SERVICE is not threatened in any way.

RATION REMINDER

Gasoline: A-8 coupons are good through November 21, and A-9 becomes good on November 22.

Meats, Fats: Brown stamps G, H, J, and K good through December 4. Brown stamp L becomes good November 22 and remains good thru January 1, 1944.

Processed Foods: Blue stamps X, Y, and Z good through November 20. Green stamps A, B, and C in book four good through Dec. 20.

MUST REPORT FOREIGN HOLDINGS

All Americans owning any foreign bonds, or $10,000 or more in any foreign property are required to report such holdings on or before

December 1 to their nearest Federal Reserve Bank. Practically every type of property must be reported—real estate holdings, cash assets, foreign currency, foreign securities, interests in foreign organizations, patent and trade mark agreements and contracts. Order can be restored more rapidly, as territories are reoccupied, if military authorities have such information at hand, states the Treasury Department. All information will be confidential and will be available only to accredited representatives of the Treasury.

SIMPLIFY GAS RATIONING

All "B" and "C" gasoline coupons issued after December 1 will be worth five gallons each, compared with the present value of two gallons for coupons of those types in the east and midwest and three gallons in the far west. This means "B" and "C" books will contain fewer coupons than in the past, but each coupon will be good for more gallons than before. No increase in the amount of gasoline allowed is involved.

FARMERS TO GET BATTERIES

Approximately 20 per cent of the fourth quarter production of flashlight batteries will be distributed to farmers, according to WPB. This makes enough batteries for about normal rural consumption available through farm outlets.

MORE HOSIERY FOR CHILDREN

Production of infants' and children's hosiery will be stepped up shortly as a result of priority assistance given to manufacturers for procurement of necessary yarn. The WPB action resulted from a falling supply of infants' and children's stockings.

SHOP AND MAIL EARLY

The public is urged to complete its Christmas shopping this month and to send all packages destined to other cities, whether by parcel post or express, before December 10. Early Christmas shopping and shipping are necessary this year to enable satisfactory handling of the extra Christmas load, Joseph B.

Red Cross Was Subject Discussion at Lion Lunch

Speaking on the International Red Cross, Rev. James Todd, pastor of the Christian Church at Panhandle, outlined several pertinent facts concerning that organization.

He stated that the Geneva Conference, held in Geneva, Switzerland, set up the rules which govern the handling of prisoners of war.

Switzerland is the land of perpetual neutrality, according to Rev. Todd. The only treaties which have been kept by Hitler and Mussolini were those made with Switzerland.

Because of this fact Geneva has been made the seat of the International Red Cross.

The Red Cross personnel are the only persons permitted to visit prisoners of war in their compounds according to the rules of the Geneva Conference.

Through the International Red Cross, parcels which are stamped by the International Red Cross are delivered to prisoners of war without opening or censorship.

The American Red Cross, through the International Red Cross, has a food package and a medical package which may be delivered to American prisoners of war.

In the opinion of Rev. Todd, the Red Cross is still a candle in a world of darkness and holds out hope for the universal brotherhood of man.

G. B. Heath Talks on County Affairs At Rotary Lunch

G. B. Heath was in charge of the Rotary Club program Tuesday, talking about the affairs of Randall county. The average layman does not know a great deal about county affairs, and takes little time to study the affairs of the county, stated Mr. Heath. He deplors the many attempts at Austin to centralize authority of the state, taking it away from local government.

While the Commissioners Court has many affairs to administer, Mr. Heath discussed only taxes, roads, and bridges. He believes that every citizen should have to sit at least twice on some board of equalization. It is not so hard to equalize farm property, but when it comes to property in Canyon and South Amarillo it is hard to establish values. The sub tax office built by the county in South Amarillo has proved a good investment for the county, stated the speaker.

The county is getting well out from under the debts of the drouth and depression years. For the past three years each county fund has shown a small balance. The county owes $265,000. Of this $212,000 remains of the old highway bonds of 1923. The state has assumed more than 99% of this.

The need now is more hard surfaced roads leading into Canyon. Mr. Heath has bought a rock crusher which will soon be in operation. He hopes to put caliche on 8 to 10 miles every year out of the road and bridge fund of the precinct. The tax rate is 92c. The values were increased by new construction and more livestock during the past year.

Dreamland Cemetery needs another well to take care of the new addition which was opened in the cemetery.

The county has no jail. This property belongs to the city, but Mr. Heath believes that the county should buy and operate the jail. Such a deal would save the county money.

Visitors were: Ross E. Logan, Sam Sidwell, Jack Allen, L. A. Vahue, E. Kancher, F. R. Barnes, all of Amarillo; Lt. Olin E. Hinkle of Ellington Field.

SOMETHING MISSING

The "town character" of a small west coast community of Norway paid a visit to the local Nazi-named mayor.

"Just one little thing I wanted to ask you, mayor. If Germany loses the war, what'll you do then?" "But Germany's sure to win." "Yes, but supposing she loses?" "Well, in that case I'd just take my hat and go." "Your hat? What would you put it on?"

DOG'S LIFE

A stranger was standing on the platform of a small railway station when the Northern express flashed past. Into the whirl of dust raised by the train leaped the station-master's dog, and tore madly up the track in pursuit.

"Does your dog often do that?" asked the stranger of the station-master.

"Yes, sir. Every time the express passes, the dog is after it like a hare."

"That's queer," commented the stranger. "Why does he do it?"

"I don't know," replied the dog's owner, scratching his head thoughtfully. "What worries me is what he's going to do with it when he catches it."

HOW SAD!

There was a young woman named Florence, For kissing she held an abhorrence. One night she got kissed, And saw what she'd missed, And her tears trickled down in great torrents.

We are engaged in another World War—a much greater war, which is taking the entire resources of our great and mighty nation. We thought we won the first war, but it turned out to be only a breathing spell so that the Axis could get started again.

This war, World War II, is truly a global war, which is taking in every citizen—every man, woman, boy and girl in every nation of the world. People are starving by the millions in those unfortunate countries which have been overrun by the Axis. This is a lesson for us—we must stay well and strong in order to finally whip the enemy and restore health to our friends who are now prisoners of the Axis.

Boys Beware Girls Prepare

By Lindsey Taylor
Yep, the Canyon Eagles will test their undefeated supremacy over the College Farm boys Wednesday night in the grade school gym. This team from the college is composed of many young athletically inclined farm boys, so the Eagles will have to strut their stuff in order to subdue them. And say, all you town and country people, come and watch them Eagles fight.

Turning the spotlight to last Saturday night's game with Vega we find: Max Bosley on the floor, Charles Taylor's man with a very sore stomach, and Number 53 on Vega side undoubtedly their A-1 player.

Going My Way?
Armistice Day was celebrated by a great many Canyon boys and girls, who went to see the Amarillo and Lubbock game, and if I may say so had MORE fun! Needless to mention, some few had a terrible time getting back. Eh, what?

In the event that some of you have forgotten about the, so far, undefeated Eagles ball club, here are their opponents and the scores they marked up:

Eagles vs. Exes and Freshmen—23-18.
Eagles vs. Vega at Canyon—46-27.
Eagles vs. Vega at Vega—36-20.
That's a fair start, isn't it?

ARE WE READY?

Now is the time for us, as students, to be preparing for our part in the post-war world. Wonderful possibilities lie out yonder if we will only avail ourselves of them.

Take for instance the field of aviation. In a world that promises us the possibility of leaving New York at a certain time and arriving in London, England, a few minutes later, what part are we going to play?

In the field of science, progress is constantly being made that challenges our most advanced thought, while the field of radio and television is still in its infancy.

Many modern inventions, such as chemical warfare and the like, which are now used to destroy, could well be used in the development and constructive future of the post-war era.

With these things in mind, we do well to qualify ourselves for the possibilities of tomorrow.

Seniors Will Have Formal Banquet

With turkey and dressing uppermost in their minds, the Senior Class will gather tomorrow night at eight o'clock in the Legion Hall for a formal banquet, their first social of the current year.

Class president, Helen Jo Cox will act as master of ceremonies and open the program by proposing a toast to the prosperity of the group. Composing the remainder of the program, Lindsey Taylor will illustrate how one is "Judged by the Company One Keeps." Billy Jane Bonifield will sing "People Will Say We're In Love," and Mollie Nann Ziegler will give a reading, "I Had But Fifty Cents."

Roommothers of the class are largely responsible for the banquet in that they planned the menu and are furnishing a major part of the food.

Hoopsters Batter Vega 36-20

Approaching Venture Causes Guys to Issue 'Glad Eye'

Hey, boys! Straighten your ties and look your handsomest if you want the girls to look your way!

Sadie Hawkins is on the loose for one whole week, from Friday, November 19, to Friday, November 26.

Of course, in the beginning, Sadie Hawkins was only for those who couldn't get a man any other way; but NOW, half of the boys are sweet as sugar to their prospects, and the other half go into hibernation for a week. Are there no happy mediums?

Even though a few girls made a mistake and "jumped the gun" by having a few dates too soon, it gave them a chance to find out how their techniques worked. (But good!)

Applying to all gals and guys, the following set of rules is to be followed without exception:

1. Boys should give girls a chance to ask for dates.
2. Girls should really show the boys how a date should be conducted.

3. Girls should "lay off" their steadies and meet some of the other boys.

4. Deadline for staying out should be midnight!

5. Boys should beware of women drivers, (providing the girls can find a siphon.)

6. Remember that the whole thing is strictly in fun and that no emotional entanglements should result from the dates.

So girls will have to dig deep into their pocketbooks, and boys who know what's good for them will remember that they, too, were poor once.

Library Receives Book Shipment

Mrs. J. W. Kleinschmidt received a shipment of books for the Canyon High School library last week. These books were secured through the library fee plan and are as follows:

Boys Will Be Men, by Burnham; A Life and Growth, by Kellner; A Girl Grows Up, by Fedder; Junior Home Economics, by Friend; Designs for Personality, by Bennett; Love at the Threshold, by Strain; Advanced Course in Homemaking, by Clavert; Earning and Spending the Family Income, by Friend; Textile Fibers and Their Use, by Hess; People and Art, by Moore; Mother and Baby Care in Pictures, by Zabriskie; Home Economics for Girls, by Woodin; Secret of Casa Grande, by Randolph; Mystery of Carlton, by Randolph; Short Grass and Longhorns, by Hammer; Helen's Babies, by Habberton; World's Great Short Stories, American and English; After Such Pleasures, by Parker; Will Rogers, by O'Brien; The Americana Annual, 1942; Twelve Bright Trumpets, by Leighton; Swiss Family Robinson, by Wyss.

Parmelee Accepts Teaching Position

From Matador will come Mrs. Kenneth C. (Dee) Parmelee to teach English in Canyon High School. She is expected to arrive not later than November 19.

Mrs. Parmelee received her Masters degree from the University of Mississippi, and before teaching in Matador, she was employed in Magnolia, Mississippi.

Her husband, Kenneth C. Parmelee, is serving with the United States Navy somewhere in the Pacific.

Scarcity Creates Earlier Deadline

Because of the scarcity of photographic materials, the deadline for senior pictures was unusually early this year.

During the two-week period allotted for the making of these pictures, nearly every senior in Canyon High School made his trip to the photographer's studio.

A special sized photograph was made with each order and, as is customary, will be framed and hung in the main hall of the high school building.

TODDLER'S MENU

"How are you feeling today?" asked the doctor.

"Not at all well."

"Humph! Did you take the medicine I prescribed for you?"

"Yes."

"Ah, yes—and the diet? I think I told you to eat only such foods as could be easily digested by a three-year-old child. Did you follow my instructions?"

"Yes, doctor, I ate two handfuls of mud, a piece of orange peel, a shoe button, and a couple of cigarette ends."

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

CREOMULSION
for Coughs, Chest Colds, Bronchitis

There seems to be quite a lot of competition between Norma Zachary and Doris Meadows over that dark and handsome, wild-shirted, heman sophomore, Lubborn Brown.

Evelyn Black had just lots of fun standing up her early Sadie Hawkins date last week. Evelyn! We wouldn't believe it of you. Really we wouldn't!

Another romance has blossomed out in Good Old CHS. Charles Wright and Jean Prater, the Halloween beauty seem to be getting along QUITE well!

Miss Rhita Jean Sullivan seems to have turned angel or something. Reason: When Bobby King ripped his trousers Monday noon, Miss Sullivan performed the kind act of mending them for him. Comment: This was the second time in two weeks that such a catastrophe occurred. Bobby, we must say!!!

A couple of couples in the sixth grade, Bruce Winn and Donna Erwin, Norris Root and Mary Ruth Hill, have really been having fun.

From personal observation, there could be some contention about whether the large number who went to Amarillo last Thursday or the handful left in school had the most fun, especially in certain classes: American history, for instance.

Classes Consider Social Activities

With the planning of class socials predominating, the classes of Canyon High School had their regular class meetings Friday morning.

Chiefly in the spotlight at the senior meeting was the formal banquet which will be held tomorrow night.

Junior activities consisted principally of a discussion of their class play, and the planning of a social to be held Saturday night, while sophomores decided on their first class social, which will take place in the high school gymnasium tomorrow.

Freshmen decided on a party; as yet it is undecided as to when or what kind it will be. Having no business to discuss, the seventh and eighth grades merely had a social hour.

Supervisor Makes Routine Check-Up

Ida Mae McClure, supervisor of the Panhandle District of the Girl Scouts of America, visited the Canyon Grade School Thursday, November 11. Miss McClure was making a routine check-up of the scout organization, offering her aid and suggestions.

Canyon has three girl scout organizations in which there are 100 active members.

Sadie Hawkins Week

Daisy Mae's dream, Li'l Abner's nightmare

Here she comes! Sadie Hawkins will pursue to the death the man of her choice. Above is pictured what will take place during Sadie Hawkins week, from November 19 to November 26.

For one whole week, the deprived, and otherwise, females will use every hook and crook in their lines to land a man.

Warning: all males attending Canyon High School should buy their track shoes ahead of time and "be ready, for ye know not females."

GRADE NOTES

Report Card distribution was the highlight of Canyon Grade School's activities for this week.

Many of the teachers have begun to decorate for Thanksgiving and to plan Thanksgiving programs.

Students leaving Canyon Grade School for other schools were: Leon Sparks, Barbara Lou Sparks, Charles Pace, Thomas Pace, Keith Pace, Kenneth Pace, Bobbie Ford, Susanne Owens, and Jimmy Owens. Levada Beckwith comes to Canyon from Amarillo to enter Mrs. T. W. Collins' first grade.

Classes in Canyon Grade School are planning to send a letter shower to Imogene McDonald, polio victim and former student. Letters are to be sent to Carrie Tingley Hospital, Hot Springs, New Mexico.

Juniors Conclude Magazine Sales

Junior Class magazine sales ended with the class taking in a total profit of $156. Under the leadership of Don Standley, the sales lasted from October 18 to November 2.

Two sides, the red and the blue, were in heated competition for the highest sales. Under the captainship of Bob Black, the reds won. Frances Harp, a member of the reds, was the leading salesman of the entire class.

Mrs. Dan Sanders, class sponsor, says, "I am very much pleased, not only with the amount of money made by the class on the sales, but also with the co-operation shown by the students in carrying out this campaign. The Junior Class greatly appreciates the help given them by the faculty and the townspeople in this undertaking."

Customer: I don't like these photographs, I look like an ape.
Photographer: You should have thought of that before you had them taken.

Seconds Down Eagle B-Team

Dowd and Bosley Claim
High-Point Distinction

Ripping their first out-of-town baskets for the year, high-flying Eagle hoopsters clinched a 36-20 victory over the Vega Longhorns Saturday night in the Vega gym.

Starting the ball flying with a two-point field goal by Don Standley, the Eagles gradually increased their lead until, at the end of the game, Canyon hoopsters occupied first place with a 16-point lead.

Squadmen Tie for High Honors

Max Bosley and Bobbie Dowd tied for high-point honors with ten points each to their credit. Don was runner-up with eight points.

Eagle second-stringers came out on the short end of a 12-13 score in the B-team battle. Despite this Vega victory the basketekers enjoyed the rough-and-tumble scrap which ensued. As high-point man, J. Ray Hunter basketed 5 points. Charles Taylor and Bob Copeland also scored field goals in the skirmish.

Fourteen Make Trip

Making the trip to Vega were: Max Bosley, Bobbie Dowd, Leslie Gordon, Don Standley, J. Spencer Winn, Charles Taylor, Bob Copeland, J. Ray Hunter, Lindsey Taylor, Kenneth Vaughn, Harliff Hicks, Merle Dickerson, Earl Gene Peppard, and Coach Milton Sanders.

Outstanding player on the Vega squad was Loyd, who made ten of Vega's 20 points.

Coach Sanders stated: "I hope the Vega players had as much fun as our boys did. The games were good experience for the Eagles and they all enjoyed it."

Amateurs Choose Annual Play

From several plays, a committee from the Junior Class has chosen this year's production. It is "The Late Mr. Early," a comedy-farce in three acts.

Try-outs will be held Thursday after school and the committee urges that every member of the class try out for some part. Rehearsal will begin Friday night and continue every night until the night of presentation, December 10.

Mrs. Dan Sanders, class sponsor, will direct the play with the assistance of Miss Irene Angel.

Apollo Boys Choir To Appear On Lyceum Program Nov. 22

Program Will Begin At 8:15 P. M. Next Monday

For the second lyceum program of the year, the Birmingham Apollo Boys Choir will sing November 22 at 8:15 p. m. In the five years of its existence, the choir has already acquired a place among the major musical organizations of our country. The choir is non-sectarian, non-denominational and non-profit. It was founded for educational purposes and has no means of support except the unsolicited donations of its friends and its concert proceeds. Its twenty-four members range in age from nine to fourteen years and are for the most part boys of superior intelligence having an average I. Q. of about 120.

The director, Coleman Cooper, is a young man thoroughly equipped for his work, having acquired his excellent musical training and pedagogic understanding through diligent study with eminent choir-masters in this country and Europe.

In the past two years the choir has concertized in 23 different states; it has made two personal appearances before President and Mrs. Roosevelt, sung over the combined facilities of the Columbia and National broadcasting networks; and was officially presented to America at its New York debut in Town Hall last spring.

The hope of Mr. Cooper has always been to establish a musical and character building institution of such merit as to attract children of unusual talent from all sections of the country. Each year he gives several boarding scholarships to out-of-state boys and has in the present group representatives from Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, North Carolina and Washington.

Persons remarking on this group say, "They are natural little boys, characterized by beautiful manners and a quick, apt response. They appear at ease and meet people and situations with grace and candor. They know hard work and the joy of accomplishment. They are justly proud."

That hits it on the nose!

IN RADIO STUDIOS when the actors see this sign language, finger pointing to nose, it means that the show is running like clockwork and will finish precisely on time.

That's the way you would like your motor to run . . . with split-second accuracy . . . and you certainly want it to keep going until that great day when new cars are again available.

Obviously, good oil can play a very important part in lengthening engine life. So keep these facts always in mind, when deciding which oil to use:

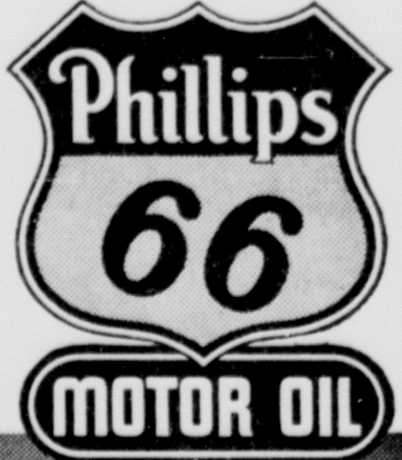

If you want our best oil, you don't have to guess or choose blindly from the many lubricants which Phillips offers, because we frankly point out that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality . . . the highest grade and greatest value . . . among all the oils we offer to average motorists.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS
by
BOYCE HOUSE

General Sheridan once said, "If I owned Texas and hell, I'd rent out Texas and live in hell."

And Senator Ben (Pitchfork) Tillman is credited with having declared, Texas has more trees and less timber, more rivers and less water, more cows and less milk—and you can see farther and see less than any darn country in the world."

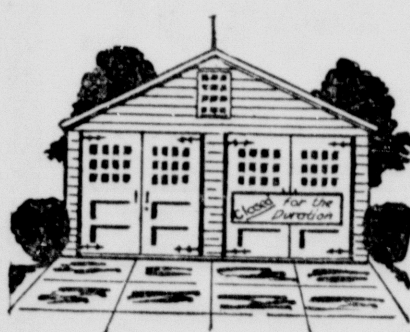

These are two of the best known sayings about Texas—and they, with 498 others, are included in a new book, "I Give You Texas: 500 Jokes of the Lone Star State."

The oldest joke on the weather in Texas is the story about the farmer who started to town in a wagon drawn by a yoke of oxen. On the way, one of the oxen died of sunstroke and, as the farmer was skinning the animal, the other one froze to death.

Another is the one about the traveler who asked the filling station attendant in West Texas, "Does the wind blow like this all the time?" and the native answered "No, sometimes it turns around and blows the other way."

Maybe not so often-told is the one about the tourist who was going through a Southwest Texas town. He saw a teacher out on the school campus with a group of children. She had a garden hose and, as the water sparkled through the air she said, "Children, that's what rain looks like."

Of course, everybody has heard about there being nothing between Amarillo and the North Pole except a barbed wire fence. When Admiral Peary reached the North Pole, he is supposed to have remarked,

"If you could see them just once—lined up each night to telephone home—you wouldn't make another unnecessary call as long as this war lasts.

Presbyterian Rally To Serve Nation And the World

"From the fox-holes and the gun-studded terrain of a hundred battle areas, a call is ringing.

"From the roaring, plane-traversed skies overhead and from the decks and holds of spray-flinging battleships, it sounds.

"From mission outposts the world over, and from lands shattered or enslaved by cruel oppressors, it is lifted.

"And, in that call is proclaimed Christianity's Golden Moment.

"Men, rubbing elbows with death, are turning to religion for comfort and courage—and groping for a God they would know and trust.

"Uprooted war-worker families, toiling far from their homes, far from the gracious influences of the church, are realizing how great is their need for the soul-strengthening support of a holy faith.

"Broken lives in broken lands are seeking a spiritual rock on which they can build anew.

"A golden Moment for Christianity, its faith and its works, is here. Presbyterians are recognizing Christianity's Golden Moment. Through the War-Time Service Fund, they are given opportunity to invest in a Christian future while extending Christian care and comfort to those serving in the armed forces, those in war-industry communities and those in war-torn foreign lands."

The Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. is seeking $1,256,592 for the War-Time Service Fund. Most of the churches will receive a special offering this coming Sunday, Nov. 21.

The First Presbyterian Church, Canyon, expects to raise its quota at the morning service as a thank-offering. At this service the choir will sing "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem" by J. H. Maunders, and the Women's Chorus will sing "Blessing" by Pearl G. Curran.

The pastor, the Rev. Robert W. Jones will preach on "Gratitude for the Gospel."

The pastor, choir, and members will join in the Community Thanksgiving Service at the First Christian Church on Thanksgiving morning at 9:30.

Before putting on her hat, the modern young lady looks at it very closely to make sure it is her hat. If it has money in it, it's her purse.

A recent advertisement states: It took 12,000 workers to put that bottle of milk at your door." Yes, it sounded as if it did.
